Areas of the PhD Programme: The PhD programme focuses on the production, transformation, quality, and safety of raw materials and food. It is offered by the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia in association with the University of Almeria (Spain), the Agricultural University of Iceland (Iceland), and the Polytechnic Institute of Coimbra (Portugal) within the UNIGreen Alliance.

The administrative headquarter of the program is the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia. Each PhD candidate will be assigned to a specific location based on the applications and on the ranking lists. The assigned location will become the primary site for the candidate's study and research activities.

Each PhD candidate must spend a mobility period at a partner institution different from their assigned location for a minimum of 3 months and up to a maximum of 18 months, which may be non-consecutive.

Upon completion of the program, the University of Modena and Reggio Emilia will award a joint PhD degree with the aforementioned universities in "Agri-food science, technology and biotechnology".

Official course language is English.

Further information is available on the website of the PhD course at: <http://www.steba.unimore.it> and here: <https://unigreen-alliance.eu/education/unigreen-phd-programme/>

Admission requirements: Italian second cycle master's degree ("Laurea Magistrale", under D.M. 270/04 or "Laurea Specialistica", under D.M. 509/99) or Italian degree obtained prior to D.M. 509/99 (the previous Italian regulations) or an equivalent second-level academic qualification issued by AFAM (Higher Education in Art, Music and Dance) institutions, or Second cycle non-Italian Master's degree, equivalent to the Italian degrees mentioned above, in accordance with Article 2 of this Call.

Documents to be attached to the application:

- 1) "Declaration of priority interest to compete for scholarships linked to a specific research topic", indicating interest in one or more scholarships with specific themes, listed in order of preference;
- 2) degree certificate (or self-certification for Italian degrees) and Transcript of Records including the full list of examinations with corresponding marks. Applicants with a non-Italian degree must attach their certificate (including the full list of examinations with corresponding marks) and a legalized translation or Diploma Supplement and, if available, the Declaration of Value ("Dichiarazione di Valore in loco") issued by the competent Italian diplomatic-consular Representation, or the certificates issued by the CIMEA - ENIC-NARIC centre. If the degree certificate is not yet available or if the degree has not yet been obtained, the candidate must attach a description of the degree with a list of the examinations taken using Annex A;
- 3) Curriculum of research and teaching activities indicating clearly and concisely what candidate has studied, skills acquired (languages, knowledge of computers, use of complex instrumentation, etc.) including any official certifications applicant may have. It must be written in English language using the template reported in Annex B and must include the exact name and nature of degrees possessed, publications, if applicable, and contributions to conferences/congresses;
- 4) Summary of Master thesis in Italian or English, or equivalent – with length between 3000 and 5000 characters (including spaces) – organised under the following headings: statement of purpose, research methodology used, obtained results; if the master's degree is not yet awarded, please submit a summary of the expected Master thesis;
- 5) Statement of Research Interest, written in English language using the template reported in Annex C and referring to the instructions contained therein, which describes the candidate specific research interests and illustrates the reasons why the candidate wishes to attend the PhD Programme;
- 6) Documents considered useful for the evaluation and/or the academic publications together with the corresponding lists;
- 7) any letters of introduction/recommendation/reference (maximum three); in the online application, applicants must enter all the personal details of the professor/researcher/expert who will be sending the letter of recommendation. Once the application has been submitted, the computer system will send an automatic e-mail to the contact person requesting the letter of recommendation. The deadline for uploading letters is June 30th 2026, 11.59 pm (CET); applicants can check on the application summary page whether the contact person has sent the cover letter/recommendation. Within the aforementioned deadline, applicants may send a reminder to the contact person who has not yet done so by selecting the 'reminder' item from the application summary page;
- 8) Copy of a valid ID document.

Evaluation Criteria:

For the evaluation of qualifications, the Selection Committee has at its disposal a score up to a maximum of 60 points, divided as follows:

- Curriculum: from 0 to 30 points,
- Summary of the Master thesis: from 0 to 15 points,
- Publications: from 0 to 5 points,
- Other qualifications: from 0 to 10 points.

The Commission has the option of conducting a cognitive interview by videoconference, which purpose is to examine in depth the qualifications submitted by candidates. This interview does not involve the awarding of a mark.

Once the qualifications have been assessed, the Selection committee will compile a merit-based ranking of candidates based on the scores awarded.

Candidates obtaining a minimum score of 40 points out of the 60 available will be considered eligible.
